

American Public Media Official Underwriting Terms and Conditions

Underwriting is an important source of unrestricted general support for American Public Media and or its Affiliates including: Classical South Florida, Minnesota Public Radio, and Southern California Public Radio (APM). APM shows its appreciation for underwriting contributions through on-air or on-line (underwriting) acknowledgements based on a mutually agreed-upon schedule.

Terms

Sponsors providing underwriting support to APM will be acknowledged on the air and/or online based on a mutually agreed-upon schedule. A statement will be provided to you each month reporting the underwriting acknowledgements that ran for the previous month. If you choose to make your payment of support in monthly installments, the statement will include the payment amount based on underwriting acknowledgement previously run. Payment is requested to be made upon receipt of the monthly statement, and in any case no later than 30 days after the monthly statement date, unless other arrangements are made in advance. The content of underwriting acknowledgments and scheduling is under the sole discretion of APM in accordance with our policies and FCC rules. APM reserves the right to pre-empt programming and underwriting acknowledgements at its discretion. Pre-empted acknowledgements will be honored to the best of the APM's ability within a mutually agreed-upon schedule. For online contracts: if the online server is down for more than 24 continuous hours during the term of this agreement, then APM will extend the online portion of the acknowledgement schedule by the amount of time the server was down.

Terms for Cancellations

If for some reason you decide to discontinue your underwriting support before the scheduled end of your underwriting acknowledgements in the agreement, we request that you contact your APM account executive 15 business days before the next scheduled acknowledgement (if schedule is less than 26 weeks). Contracts of more than 25 weeks require a 30 day written notice of cancellation.

APM reserves its rights to pursue payment for underwriting acknowledgements prior to receiving notice of cancellation.

Notice:

APM does not discriminate on the basis of race or gender.
